REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Fox Creek High School continued to grow during the 2007-2008 year. The school offered its students expanded opportunities to participate in academics, athletics, the arts, and community service. In addition, the school is preparing for the construction of a new facility that will further cement its ties to the community. As we review the previous year and anticipate the coming year, it is an exciting time to be a Fox Creek Predator.

The school added several new programs to supplement its curriculum. The Science Department held its first science fair, and the Spanish club traveled to Spain. Our Fine Arts Department saw exponential growth. Fox Creek fielded its first marching band, presented fall and spring theatre productions, and performed in a prestigious choral competition. One student finished in the top 4 in the state at the Poetry Out Loud contest. Another student finished 2nd in the Augusta Regional Airport Art Contest.

Students continued to involve themselves in the community through food drives, the Adopt-A-Highway program, the blood drive, nursing home visitations, and senior community service projects. Each senior volunteered at least 10 hours to the UPWARDS basketball program at Big Stevens Baptist Church. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes contributed to Operation Christmas Child. Our Predator cheerleaders participated in several community carnivals and festivals to entertain local children, most notably at the North Augusta Christmas Parade.

Fox Creek's athletic programs garnered accolades on and off the court. The varsity swim team participated in the state meet with one swimmer finishing as runner up in two events. The varsity volleyball team won its second consecutive regional championship and advanced to the state quarterfinals. The tennis team also participated in the state tournament for the second year in a row. Other teams winning consecutive region championships include baseball, softball, and golf. The first year wrestling team was quite a success, finishing with a winning record after competing against larger, more established programs. Further, Fox Creek students were chosen to participate in the SCHSL leadership summit, recognized as scholarathletes, and attended weekly "Winning with Character" seminars.

The SIC's volunteer run communications subcommittee continues to keep parents and community informed by way of monthly newsletters, weekly emails, the daily buzz-by-board, and a dynamic website. We are proud of the school's achievements and remain committed to advancing the academic, artistic, athletic, and service-learning programs. As students, faculty, and staff work together to build our school and its traditions, the SIC extends its invitation to parents and the community to join these efforts.
